

K-Love is an uplifting radio station designed to give people hope for everyday living. I hear it playing in businesses across our town. I believe it will hurt our community to replace it with an LPFM that may not be family friendly or hope giving.